

INTRODUCTION

Once upon a Time

Introduce MC and family. Describe the home and tell how MC came to live there. Introduce each family member creating contrast between MC and them.

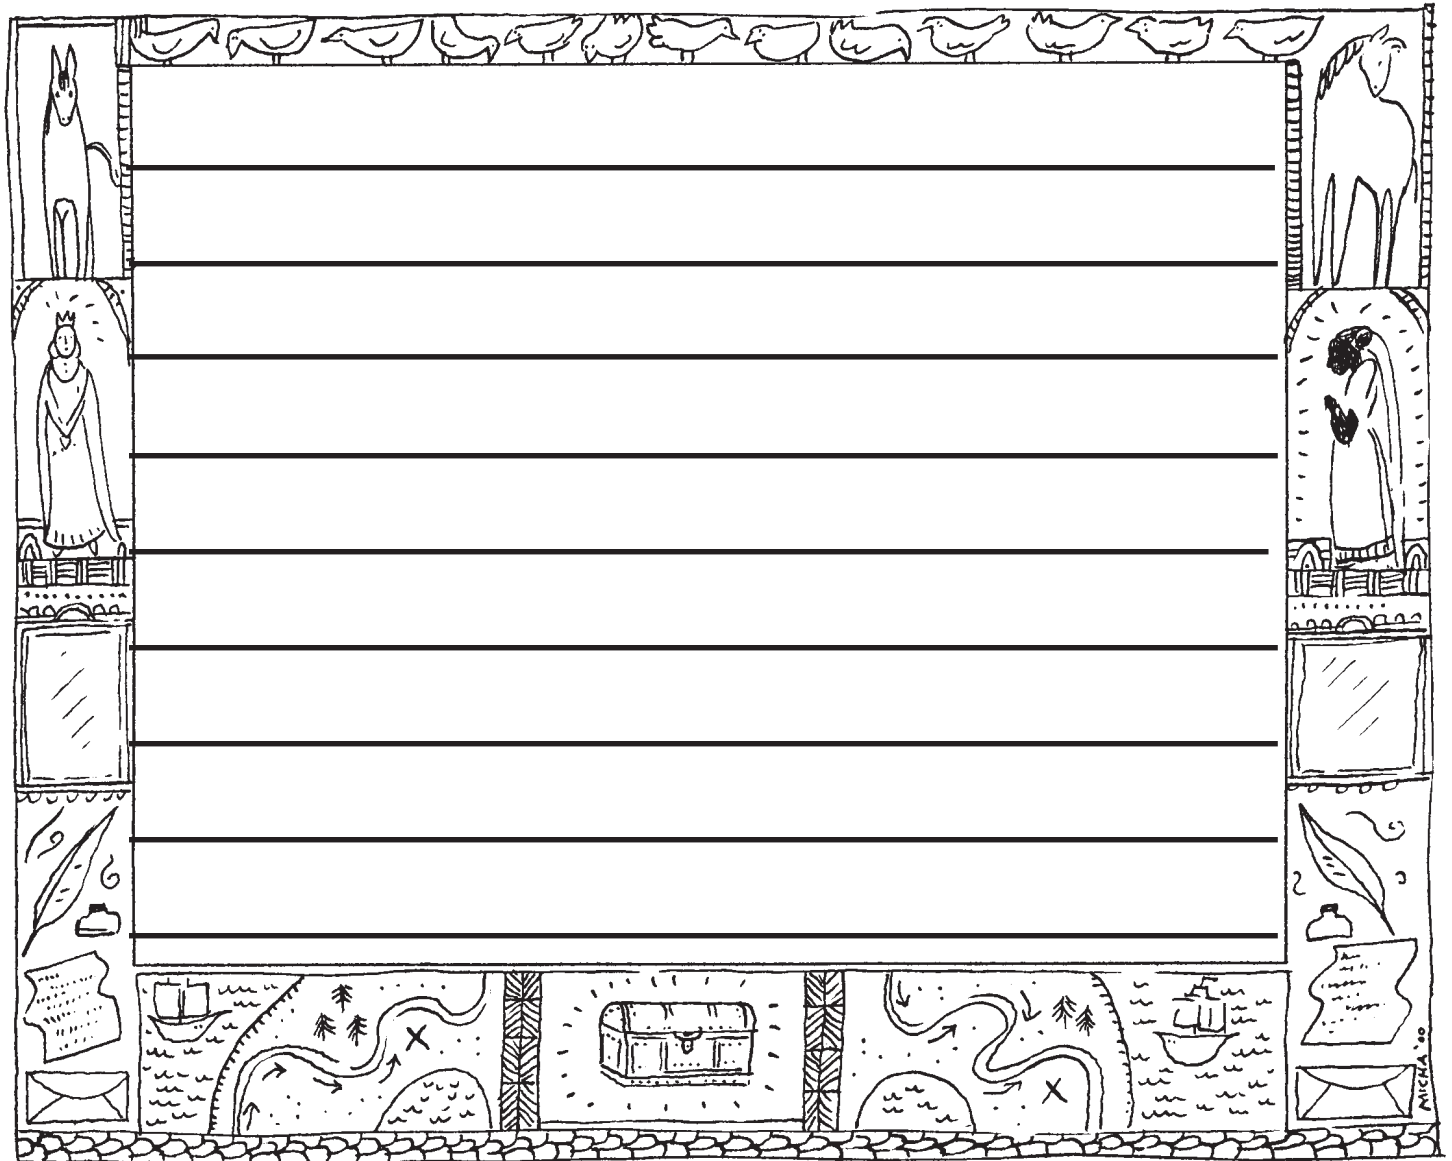

A large rectangular area with horizontal lines for writing, framed by a decorative border featuring giraffes, bees, and various animals.

Everyday Life

I hate my life!

Describe MC's everyday life. What is MC forced to do and of what is MC deprived? Describe how MC takes it all. Give a sense that MC is unhappy and deserves much better.

Reaction - Denied!

It will be wonderful - but not for you!

Describe the conversation between MC and family denying MC the chance to go. What excuse if any do they use? Does the family intend to go? Describe how they talk about the event.

The writing area consists of ten horizontal lines for text. The border is decorated with various icons: a tractor, a boot, a sun, mountains, a hot air balloon, a truck, a skateboard, a bicycle, a cart, a house, and a horse.

Preparation

Now help us get ready!

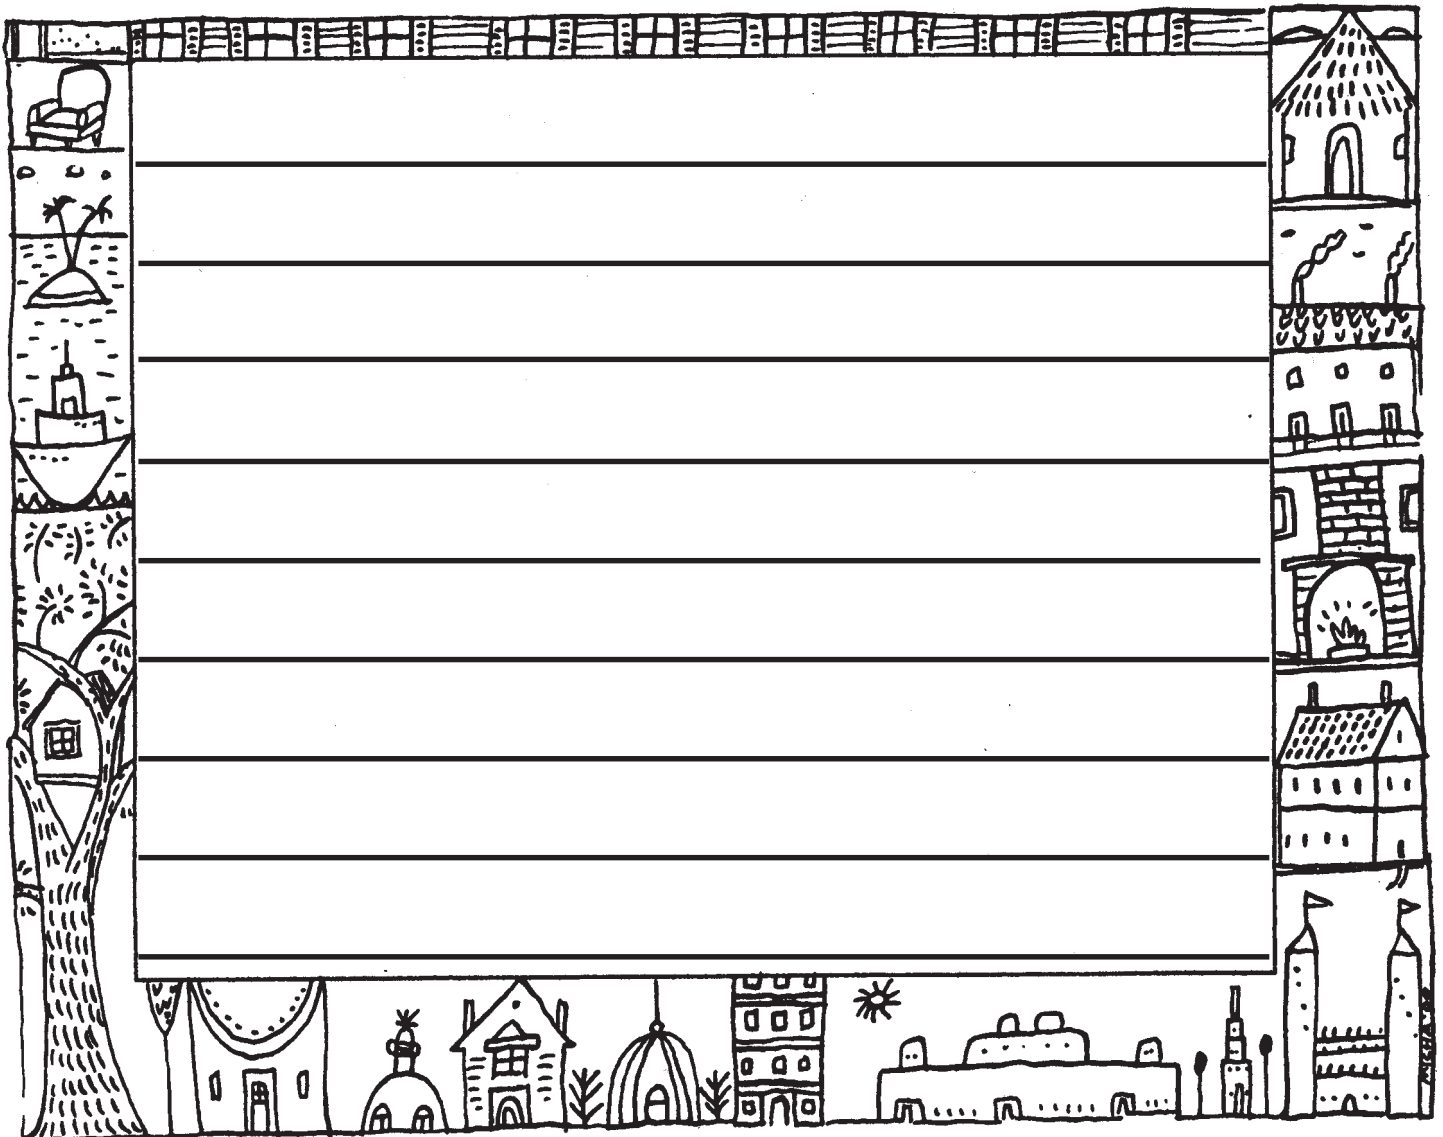

Describe the family preparing for the event. How do they treat the MC? What last minute things do they do to keep MC from going?

Now what! - Well, maybe I can go!

Describe the MC's feelings when left all alone. What happens to make MC realize that there is a chance? (1st Problem solving device)

Complications

Oh no! Just my luck!

The 1st problem solving device failed. Tell what happened.
Tell what the MC did to make the new device possible.

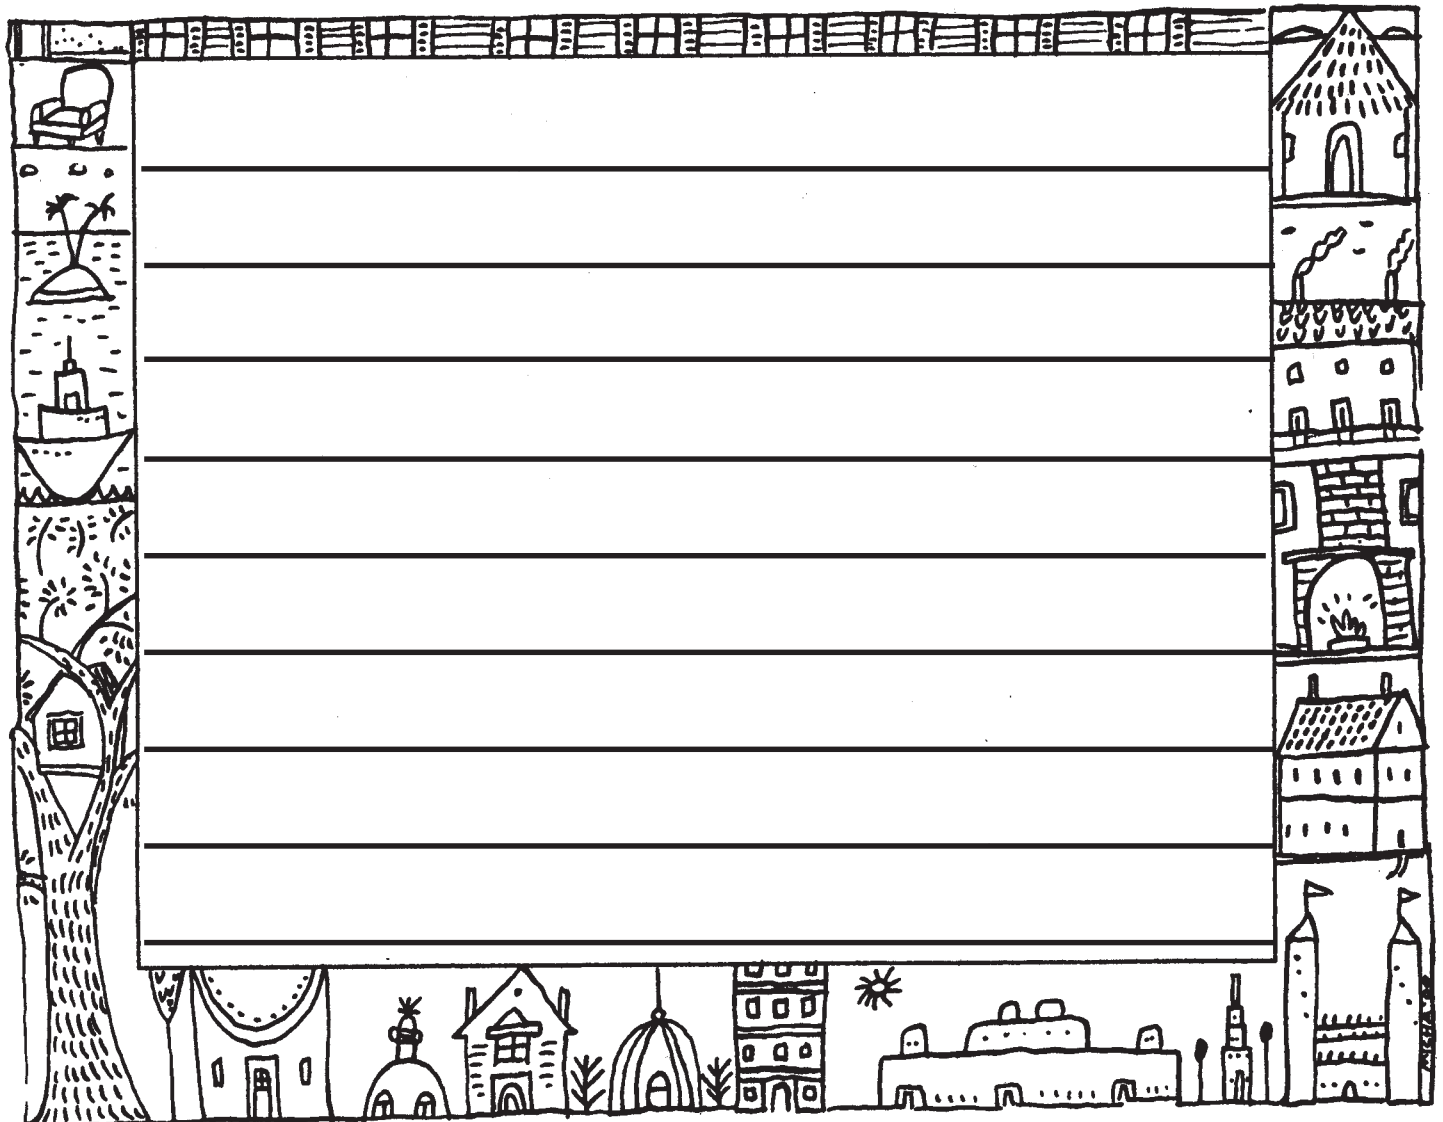

The writing area consists of ten horizontal lines for text. The border is decorated with various mechanical and fantastical illustrations:

- Top left: A steam train.
- Top right: A hot air balloon.
- Middle left: A boot, a sun, mountains, and a crown.
- Middle right: A hot air balloon, a steam train, and a skateboard.
- Bottom left: A bicycle, a cart, and a house.
- Bottom right: A dragon.

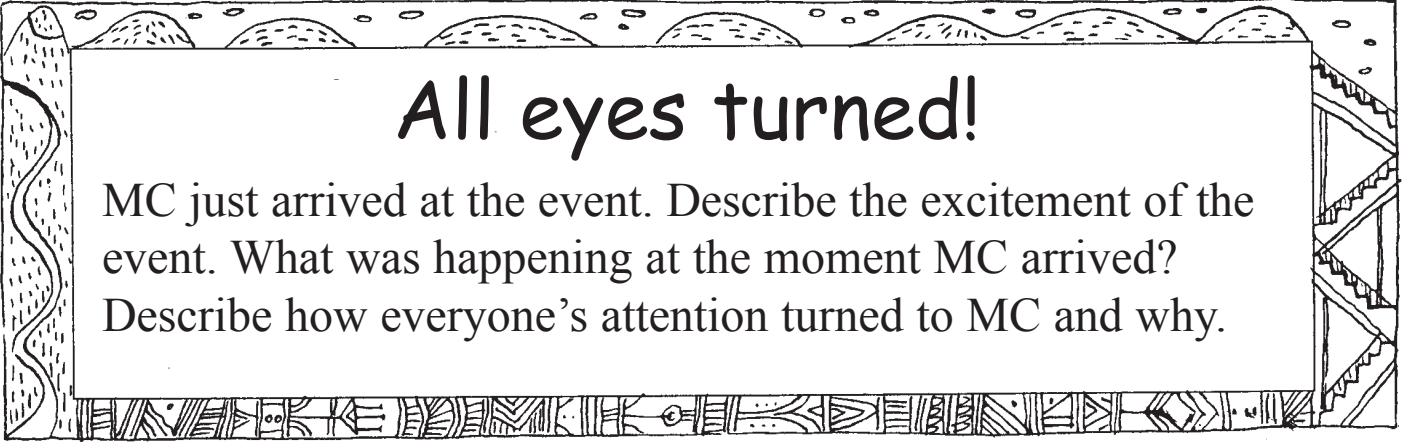

I'm going to make it after all!

Finally something happens that helps the MC get to the event. How does MC finally get there with all the necessary equipment, etc.?

Arrival

All eyes turned!

MC just arrived at the event. Describe the excitement of the event. What was happening at the moment MC arrived? Describe how everyone's attention turned to MC and why.

Success

And the prize goes to..!

It's MC's turn to participate. Describe the MC being successful in the event. Describe everyone's reaction to what the MC does.

Reflection

Now this is living!!

Describe MC's new life. Give the feeling of how much better it is and how MC enjoys it. You might also tell what happened to the family.

A large writing area with horizontal lines, surrounded by a decorative border featuring various animals and patterns. The animals include a crocodile, a dinosaur, a tiger, a snake, and a wolf. The border also contains geometric shapes and symbols.